

KIDS RESEARCH STRATEGY

This strategic overview outlines key research priorities, themes and enablers which will be crucial to the success of maximising health outcomes for children and young people in NSW, nationally and beyond. Over the next five years, we hope to enhance the integration of research and clinical care in our Hospitals and leverage game-changing technologies as we move towards precision medicine and personalised care for every child.

